

Animal Welfare.
Worldwide.

March 31st 2021

Wool Commitments by Brands

This document serves as reference until official publication

Gold

Kathmandu

The brand plans to achieve a goal of having 100% RWS certified wool products in their stores by 2025. They will publish the commitment with their new Sustainability Report in October 2021.

Silver

C&A

The brand plans to achieve a goal of having 100% RWS certified or GRS/RCS certified wool products in their stores by 2025. They will publish the commitment with their new Sustainable Strategy in April 2021.

Marc o'Polo

The brand plans to achieve a goal of having 100% RWS, GOTS, OCS certified or recycled wool products in their stores by 2023. They will publish the commitment with their updated Sustainability Report by the end of March 2021.

s.Oliver

The brand plans to achieve a goal of having 100% RWS certified wool products in their stores by 2025. They will publish the commitment with the updated Animal Welfare policy on their website by April 2021.

Vero Moda

The brand plans to achieve a goal of having 100% RWS certified (or equivalent) wool products in their stores by 2025. They will publish the commitment by April 2021.

Bronze

Benetton

The brand has made a partial phase out commitment of having 30% mulesing-free certified wool by 2025.